Immigrant Entrepreneur Awards

2017 #ILCTR awards winners: Johannes Fruehauf, Jose de la Rosa, Sandro Catanzaro, Josefina Luna.

In its seventh year, The ILC Immigrant Entrepreneur Awards brings together Massachusetts business and community leaders to honor the successes of outstanding immigrant entrepreneurs and raise awareness of the important contributions of immigrant business owners across the commonwealth. The awards dinner, attended by 250 supporters, is held annually at the Royal Sonesta Boston.

“Behind all of our foreign-born business owners are incredible stories of resilience and ambition. These Awards honor their contributions and their tireless work to achieve the American Dream, and I’m proud to be part of it.”

The Immigrant Learning Center, Inc. (ILC) of Malden, MA, is a not-for-profit organization that gives immigrants a voice in three ways. The English-language program provides free, year-round English classes to immigrant and refugee adults in Greater Boston to help them become successful workers, parents and community members. The Public Education Institute informs Americans about the economic and social contributions of immigrants in our society, and the Institute for Immigration Research, a joint venture with George Mason University, conducts research on the economic contributions of immigrants.
